

Mobility Defined

Stay Connected Wherever You Go

In today's mobile world, customers expect your business to be increasingly available and responsive. That's why extending the benefits of mobile communication and collaboration to all your employees allows your business to match or exceed these growing demands.

With DOTVOX, you'll gain the versatility, accessibility, and ease-of-use your business needs in order to stay connected internally with partners and clients. DOTVOX delivers a fully-managed, unified communications service providing rich features, functions, and a flexible work environment that can be accessed from any compatible, mobile device.

Benefits

INCREASED COMMUNICATION

Have access to all your business contacts using any compatible tablet or cellular device. Android and iOS supported.

INCREASED EFFICIENCY

Make important calls and check corporate voicemail and call logs when you're at home, out of the office, or on the road –even internationally.

PROFESSIONAL IMAGE

Regardless of the device you use, you maintain the same business number for each. Any incoming call to the office goes directly to your personal device, wherever you are.

Unified Communications for a
Flexible Work Environment

SAVE MONEY

All incoming and outgoing business calls are routed through your corporate phone network, saving costs on long distance and international fees.

EASE-OF-USE

Just open the mobile app to access your business contacts and DOTVOX features.
